

2019 ECIPS

It's back!!! For years people have been asking: What happened to ECIPS??! Unfortunately, the warm trend of late has led to us seeing fewer spice notes in our wines. We are fairly convinced that cooler vintages enhance spice and luckily, at Colibri (where all this fruit was grown) a cooler late summer loaded with lots of rain (never thought I would like that...) resurrected this cult classic. Historically, this blend is so tasty that one of our Wine Club members suggested the purported acronym read "Enjoy 'Cause It's Practically Sex." Possibly you'll agree...
